

Joye Law Firm's Web Site Receives First Place Honor

March 2008

Joye Law Firm's Web site was recently voted First Place by South Carolina Lawyers Weekly for having the Best Law Firm Web Site for a medium-sized firm. The judges' comments included appreciation for ease of use, inclusion of pertinent firm and legal news, and commendations for complete lawyer biographies.

Additionally, several highly-informative, easy-to-access features of the homepage and Web site earned Joye Law Firm its first place honor, including practice area overviews, consistently updated firm news, an informational DVD, and community involvement. The judges also remarked on the Web site's high-visibility in search engines and the depth of the content throughout the site.
