How Did You Learn About the Joye Law Firm Scholarship:

PART II: Creative Portion - Create an Infographic.

To qualify for this scholarship, create an Infographic that raises awareness of a Personal Injury matter. Choose one of the topics below. You may draw or design it however you like, including by using free online software (i.e. Piktochart, Easel.Ly, Canva, etc.). The firm retains the right to publish any submitted art.

- (A) Drunk Driving. What are ways young adults can address the topic of drinking and driving with their peers? In what ways can you influence your peers to make more responsible decisions in regards to drunk driving?
- (B) Distracted Driving. In what ways can friends add distractions in a vehicle, and is the subject discussed enough? What can be done to help avoid these situations? In what ways can you advocate safer driving among your peers?
- (C) Work Injuries. Where do you think employers lack adequate safety measures? Outline some of the most dangerous occupations and where risks for injury are found. Show statistics and evidence to support your visuals.
- (D) Personal Injury. Outline some of the most common cases of personal injury. How do they occur? Where do they occur? What are the most common causes of them and how can they be prevented?
- (E) Nursing Home Abuse. In what way are elders abused in nursing homes? Discuss physical, mental, and emotional abuse. What are some of the signs of abuse that an individual might show and what should family members be on the lookout for?
